Freedom of Choice Plans Overturned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court upset today the "freedom of choice" attendance plans of three southern school systems.

A unanimous decision said "If there are reasonably available other ways, such as illustration as zoning, promising speedier and more effective conversion to a unitary, non-racial school system, 'freedom of choice' must be held unacceptable."

The decision further charged lower federal courts with retaining jurisdiction in school segregation cases "so that the goal of a desegregated, non-racially operated school system is rapidly and finally achieved."

The ruling disapproved the plans of New Kent County, Va., Jackson, Tenn., and Gould, Ark., school districts. Justice William J. Brennan Jr. spoke for the court.

Recalling that it has been more than a decade since the Supreme Court declared racial segregation in public schools unconstitutional, Brennan said that in areas where there is segregation "the burden on a school board today is to come forward with a plan that promises realistically to work and promises realistically to work now."

He added: "There is no universal answer to complex problems of desegregation; there is obviously no one plan that will do the job in every case. The matter must be assessed in the light of the circumstances present and the options available in each instance."

Where federal district courts find school boards acting in good faith and determine that a proposed plan has real prospects for dismantling segregated school systems "at the earliest practicable date," then the plan may be said to be acceptable, Brennan continued.

Labor Favors Tax Proposals

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. Bill Becker, president of the Arkansas State AFL-CIO, said Sunday night that labor had no objections to the tax proposals placed before the special legislative session by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

The governor has three bills before the session asking for increases in tobacco taxes. "I think they are minimums," Becker said. "I think they are directed at the right items."

Nixon Feels Nomination Almost His

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, summing up five months of primary campaigning, says only an unusual combination of circumstances can deny him the Republican presidential nomination.

Barring some dramatic new development that cannot now be foreseen, Nixon said in an interview he is confident he can stand off the thrusts of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and California Gov. Ronald Reagan and walk off with the prize on an early ballot at the Miami Beach, Fla., convention.

One development which could cloud this optimistic picture, he conceded, would be an unexpected showing by Rockefeller and Reagan in Tuesday's Oregon primary balloting. Nixon has lowered his sights in this last of the major primaries for the Republican contenders, maintaining that 55 per cent of the GOP vote will be a satisfactory victory. He has been averaging around 70 per cent in other primaries, where the combined Rockefeller-Reagan threat has not been serious. If he wins in Oregon and adds South Dakota's 14 convention votes in a June 4 primary without further campaigning there, Nixon thinks he will have established a commanding lead in the nomination contest.

Nixon thinks that it might be possible for Rockefeller and Reagan to put together a combination with the favorite sons that could stall his convention bandwagon.

Nixon said if there ever was a chance that the Republican governors would swing their combined weight behind Rockefeller it has evaporated. The GOP governors will meet in Tulsa, Okla., June 14-15 to draft proposed convention platform planks and discuss candidates. "I will have more governors supporting me than backing Rockefeller," he predicted.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

SUBSIDIZED NON-MARRIAGE

Dear Helen:

Our daughter takes her unwed pregnancy as lightly as a date to the prom. She says she isn't ready for marriage, but she will continue going with her steady. She expects us to keep her baby until she finishes high school and college. Then — well, maybe she'll marry the fellow, if she likes him well enough.

My wife goes along with the idea, and I am violently opposed to it. We are in our 50s and had looked forward to an early retirement and travel. We aren't equipped to raise a small child.

Our daughter has never even been made to clean her own room. You can imagine how much time she'll spend on the baby!

I'm being called an unnatural grandfather, and a cruel and unfeeling father. But I say if she wants her child, she should accept the responsibilities of marriage, or at least the complete financial and physical care of him.

What bothers me most is the attitude of her friends. To them it's "nothing to get shook up about." Well, I'm plenty shook up!

We've smoothed over every other problem our daughter has faced, from traffic tickets to minor brushes with the police. We've been good, understanding parents, but this is too much. If she keeps on with this boy, keeps her baby — I will walk out. Am I so wrong? — FINALLY PUTTING MY FOOT DOWN

Dear FPMFD:

You're right in refusing to subsidize a non-marriage, but you're wrong in being surprised at the suggestion. After all, you've "smoothed over every other problem" for this spoiled girl. Why expect instant responsibility?

... And why walk out on something you've helped cause? I'd suggest that you place your daughter in a good maternity home, where parents and young people alike will benefit from wise counseling. You can win this round without breaking up your marriage, but you'll all need the advice of an expert. —H.

Dear Helen:

I am 20 years old, married and divorced, with two babies. I would like to tell these girls who think they are in love to remember they don't know what love is at age-16.

It took me four years, beatings, starving, four separations, four babies, seeing my husband with other women, and hurts I can't mention, to find this out.

I was 15 and pregnant when I got married. He left me soon afterward and my twins were born dead. Then he came back, but he had only three jobs in four years, and never stayed on one more than two months.

Many times we slept in the car with our babies during the cold winter months. We hardly ate. But all the time he had money to spend on other girls. Big dumb me, I thought I loved him and stayed because I KNEW I could change him.

But when he started beating the children too, I knew I had to leave.

I'm luckier than most. I've found a man who really cares for me and my daughters. But even so, we aren't rushing into marriage. This time we'll both be

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Do you remember—

When Faye Emerson's low necklines caused much discussion?

When Arthur Godfrey, wearing earphones and sitting at a desk on stage, conducted "Talent Scouts" like a booker for club dates?

When Jerry Lester and a big blonde named Dagmar kept the audiences awake and laughing into the small hours?

If you do, you are probably in that group of citizens that television calls "older," and you also probably remember when summer reruns came during a period of only about 13 weeks and were presented with a bit of a flourish as "The Best of Groucho" or "The Best of Drag-net."

Today none of the networks makes any bones about reruns, and they occupy four or five months of the year.

Only in the cases of the special programs are any attempts made these days to dress up the rebroadcasts. Reruns of specials are called, by all three networks, "encore showings," suggesting that they have been brought back by popular demand.

With reruns in full bloom, the public is getting a last chance to see some shows that will quietly depart from the networks in September. Somehow, after they have been canceled, they sometimes pack a little more charm. Some shows, like "Cowboy in Africa" will disappear without more than a ripple, but others will be missed.

This viewer, while hardly among the faithful fans, will miss "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," partly for its interesting special effects and trick photography, but more for its ingenious assortment of monsters that, week after week, placed the submarine and its crew in deadly peril. My favorites were the scary ones that looked like outside boiled lobster or overgrown bunches of lettuce.

I shall also miss the robot "Lost in Space," which over two seasons developed a lovable personality and in one episode was involved in a romance of sorts with a lady computer.

"Tarzan," if watched in the proper mood and not tackled too often, has also been a frequent source of amusement.

All of these, of course, were potboilers and primarily designed to attract the young audiences, but often in their earnest ways they were funnier than the most conscientious comedy shows.

Humphrey Is Favored With 1,279

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has won the bulk of Iowa's Democratic National Convention delegates and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey holds the lion's share of Vermont's.

And Humphrey has 63% of Pennsylvania's 130 convention votes, an Associated Press survey showed today, to 19 for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and 2% for Kennedy.

A meeting of the Pennsylvania delegates has been scheduled today at which it is possible state organization leaders, who have tried to maintain official neutrality, may throw support to Humphrey.

Newsweek magazine meanwhile said Humphrey appears favored for 1,279 of the 1,312 delegate votes needed for nomination. Newsweek said Kennedy appears favored for 713 1/2 votes and McCarthy for 280.

Iowa Democrats gave 18 convention votes over the weekend to Kennedy, 5 to Humphrey and 2 1/2 to McCarthy. Humphrey got 10 Vermont delegates, Kennedy 7 and McCarthy 5.

The Iowa and Vermont delegate selection came just before the third crucial primary confrontation between Kennedy and McCarthy, this one in Oregon Tuesday.

Kennedy courted what his camp believed may be a large undecided vote in Oregon and McCarthy said "every sign" now points to a good showing for him.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon, predicting he will get 55 per cent of the GOP vote in Oregon, said supporters of California Gov. Ronald Reagan and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are working in tandem to try to block his drive for the presidential nomination.

Reagan, a California favorite son who says he is not a presidential candidate, is on the Oregon ballot. Rockefeller, an announced candidate, is not.

Nixon was considered sure to win Oregon's 18 GOP convention votes in the primary and the Democratic winner will get 35 convention votes.

Travs Come From Behind for Victory

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas overcame a one-run deficit by pushing home three unearned runs in the seventh inning Sunday and trimmed Shreveport 8-6 in a Texas League baseball game.

The Travelers got their runs on two errors, a walk, double and single after two were out. Jerry Davanon delivered a run-producing single and John Roberto the double. The third run scored on a Braves' error. Boots Day belted his fourth homer of the year with one man on in the third. Clarence Gaston homered for Shreveport in the second.

In other games Sunday, Dallas-Fort Worth pitchers made league history by no-hitting Memphis for the second straight time in winning the first game of a doubleheader 3-0. Memphis won the nightcap 1-0 to snap a seven-game losing streak.

Luis Penalver hurled a no-hitter in the seven-inning opener to match a similar performance by the Spurs' Bob Watkins at Memphis Friday night. The teams were rained out Saturday.

Back-to-back no hitters by one team had never been recorded previously in the league.

The Blues ended 18 straight innings without a hit in the second game when Chico Diaz slammed a 360-foot homer in the second inning. The run ended a 26-inning scoreless string for the Blues.

Lunn Wins Top Money at Memphis

By BOB GILBERT
Associated Press Sports Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Angie Lunn neither plays golf nor talks the game at home. But for 40 tense minutes she knew something her husband, Bob, didn't know about the $100,000 Memphis Open Golf Tournament.

Angie saw Bob sink a 12-foot eagle putt on the 16th hole and realized he had moved into a two-stroke lead. He didn't know he was on the verge Sunday of winning the $20,000 first prize until he reached the 18th green.

Lunn parred the next two holes, finished with a 12-under-par 65-68-68-67—268 and won the first tournament since he joined the tour last year.

"I watched on television in our motel room for a while, then went to the course and first saw him there at 15," Angie said. "I knew the eagle was important, but I wasn't thinking ahead that it would win for him."

"I felt a little weak on the 18th green when I knew I could win with a par," Lunn said. "It's probably fortunate I didn't know I was in front by two. Something might have happened."

Lunn, 23, of Sacramento, Calif., said he was planning on a birdie 4 when he made the eagle. He putted well throughout the tournament, making many two-to-five-foot putts for pars.

Monty Kaser, of Wichita, Kan., was second at 269 and won $12,000. Like Lunn, he is a former National Public Links champion.

Tigers Have Rough Time in Oakland

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
The next time the Detroit Tigers visit the American League's newest city they're liable to show up in armor-plated flannels.

In splitting a pair of weekend decisions with the brash, young Athletics in Oakland, the Tigers:

—Had three starters, including Al Kaline, knocked out of commission.

—Had another regular banished following a Sunday free-for-all.

—And had their league lead cut to one game by Baltimore's streaking Orioles.

Pinch hitter Rene Lachemann added insult to injury in Sunday's brawl-marred series finale, stroking a run-scoring single in the 10th inning to give the A's a 7-6 victory.

Elsewhere, the Orioles outscored Washington 8-7 for their fifth straight victory, Minnesota nipped Boston 5-4, Cleveland beat California 5-2 and the New York Yankees took a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 5-1 and 7-6.

In the National League, Los Angeles trimmed Houston 5-0, the Chicago Cubs downed San Francisco 4-2, Philadelphia trounced St. Louis 9-3, Atlanta edged the New York Mets 2-1 in a six-inning, rain-curtailed game and Cincinnati played Pittsburgh to an 8-8 standoff halted by rain after seven innings.

The Tigers and A's battled to a 2-2 rain-abbreviated tie in Friday night's series opener. The Tigers won 2-1 Saturday night, but lost Kaline for two to three weeks when the injury-plagued outfielder was struck by a Lew Krausse pitch and suffered a hairline fracture of his right forearm.

In the same game, Detroit second baseman Dick McAuliffe tossed his bat in disgust while running out a pop fly, tripped over the bat and severely bruised his thigh. He sat out Sunday's game, and slugging outfielder Willie Horton joined him on the sidelines in the fourth inning after injuring his leg while running out a bunt single.

Depleted by the injuries, the Tigers fell behind 6-0, the scored twice in the fifth and struck for four runs in the sixth to knot it at 6-6.

After Dick Tracewski drove in the tying run with a sacrifice fly, Oakland reliever Jack Aker hit Jim Northrup on the back of the batting helmet with a pitch. Northrup charged the mound and flattened Aker with a flurry of punches as both benches emptied. Horton emerged from the Tigers' dugout in his stocking feet, ready to do battle. Krausse raced from the Oakland bench to the middle of the scuffle.

A's pitcher John "Blue Moon" Odom, although not in the game, also raced from the dugout and mixed it up with the Tigers' injured McAuliffe.

When order was restored, Northrup, Krausse and Odom were ejected from the game and Aker was helped to the A's dressing room, his face bruised and scratched, most of his uniform torn off.

Umpire Ede Runge said that Odom was thrown out because "he kicked McAuliffe in the ribs."

Northrup was sent to a nearby hospital as a precautionary measure, then released to join the departing Tigers.

A woman fan was less fortunate. During the fight, one of the Detroit players threw a ball into the stands. It struck her above the right eye, opening a three-inch gash, and doctors said she may have suffered a concussion.

Four innings after the brawl was over, Jim Pagliaroni poked a leadoff double and Lachemann, batting .154 with just one RBI in 15 previous games, sent everybody home with a run-scoring single to left.

The Orioles capitalized on the wildness of Washington pitchers Frank Bertina and Bob Humphreys to score four runs without a hit in the first two innings. Dave Johnson singled in the fifth for the first Baltimore hit and Andy Etchebarren cracked a two-run homer, giving the Orioles a 6-2 lead. The Senators mounted a late inning comeback that included Frank Howard's 19th homer but fell one run short.

Ninth inning homers by Harmon Killebrew and Ted Uhlaender powered the Twins past Boston after Ken Harrelson's three-run blast helped the Red Sox to a 4-0 first inning lead. Max Alvis drove in three runs with a homer and single and

Drysdale in Another Shutout

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
The strong pitching arms that have dominated major league baseball this spring are zooming in on poor, old Doc White again. This time it's Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who polished off Houston 5-0 for his fourth consecutive shutout Sunday.

That tied Drysdale with five others for the modern National League record of four straight blank jobs. The major league record of five was set by one G. Harris White, who pitched for the Chicago White Sox in 1904 which, until now, was always known as baseball's deadball era.

Doc White's mark stood off a confrontation by Luis Tiant of Cleveland, who pitched four straight shutouts earlier this season and now Drysdale is perched on the doorstep.

In other National League action Sunday, Chicago dropped past San Francisco, Banks, 37, San Francisco 4-2, Philadelphia battered St. Louis 9-3, Atlanta

The Braves edged the Mets in a splashy affair at Atlanta. The game was delayed over an hour at the start and played in a steady rain until the seventh when the downpour forced the umpires to halt and eventually call it.

By then, though, the Braves had a 2-1 edge and it went in the books as a victory.

Rain washed out a tie breaker in the eighth inning for Pittsburgh and left the Pirates

Qualifying in Speedway Continues

By DALE BURGESS
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Qualifications for the 52nd 500 mile auto race Thursday went into an extra session today at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway for the first time since 1952. Rain, all but one day of the last three weeks, left the time trials schedule in a shambles. Nine cars qualified Saturday in high winds, headed by Mel Kenyon, Lebanon, Ind., at a modest 165.191 miles per hour. Eight spots remain open in the 33-car line-up.

The track was too wet for speed until well after the 6 p.m. EST scheduled close of time trials Sunday.

Rules permitted the Speedway to complete the line-up any way it saw fit, and it decided to let every healthy unqualified car—about 25—make one more run. The 25 already qualified cars were ruled safe from "bumping" by any subsequent superior speeds.

Two provisional qualifications were made at dusk Sunday by veteran Bill Cheesbourg, Tucson, Ariz., a slow 157.274 in an Eagle-Ford, and rookie Bill Puterbaugh, Roxanna, Ill., 157.301 with a deadlock against Cincinnati.

Roberto Clemente's two-run homer highlighted a six-run Pirate sixth that gave Pittsburgh an 8-7 edge but a double by Tommy Helms and Vada Pinson's single tied it for the Reds in the bottom half of the sixth.

Clemente singled Willie Starangel across in the eighth before the rain eliminated the run.

The consensus in the Speedway's Gasoline Alley was that it didn't make much difference who filled the last eight spots in the line-up.

The three Lotus turbines driven by Joe Leonard, Graham Hill and Art Pollard, are considered the class of the field if they hold up for 500 miles.

Hill won the Grand Prix of Monaco Sunday in record time after taking the Spanish Grand Prix two weeks ago.

America also had a driver with a hot hand, Bobby Unser, Albuquerque, N.M., who will start beside Leonard and Hill in the front row Thursday, has won the last three U.S. Auto Club championship races. He will drive a turbocharged Offenhauser.

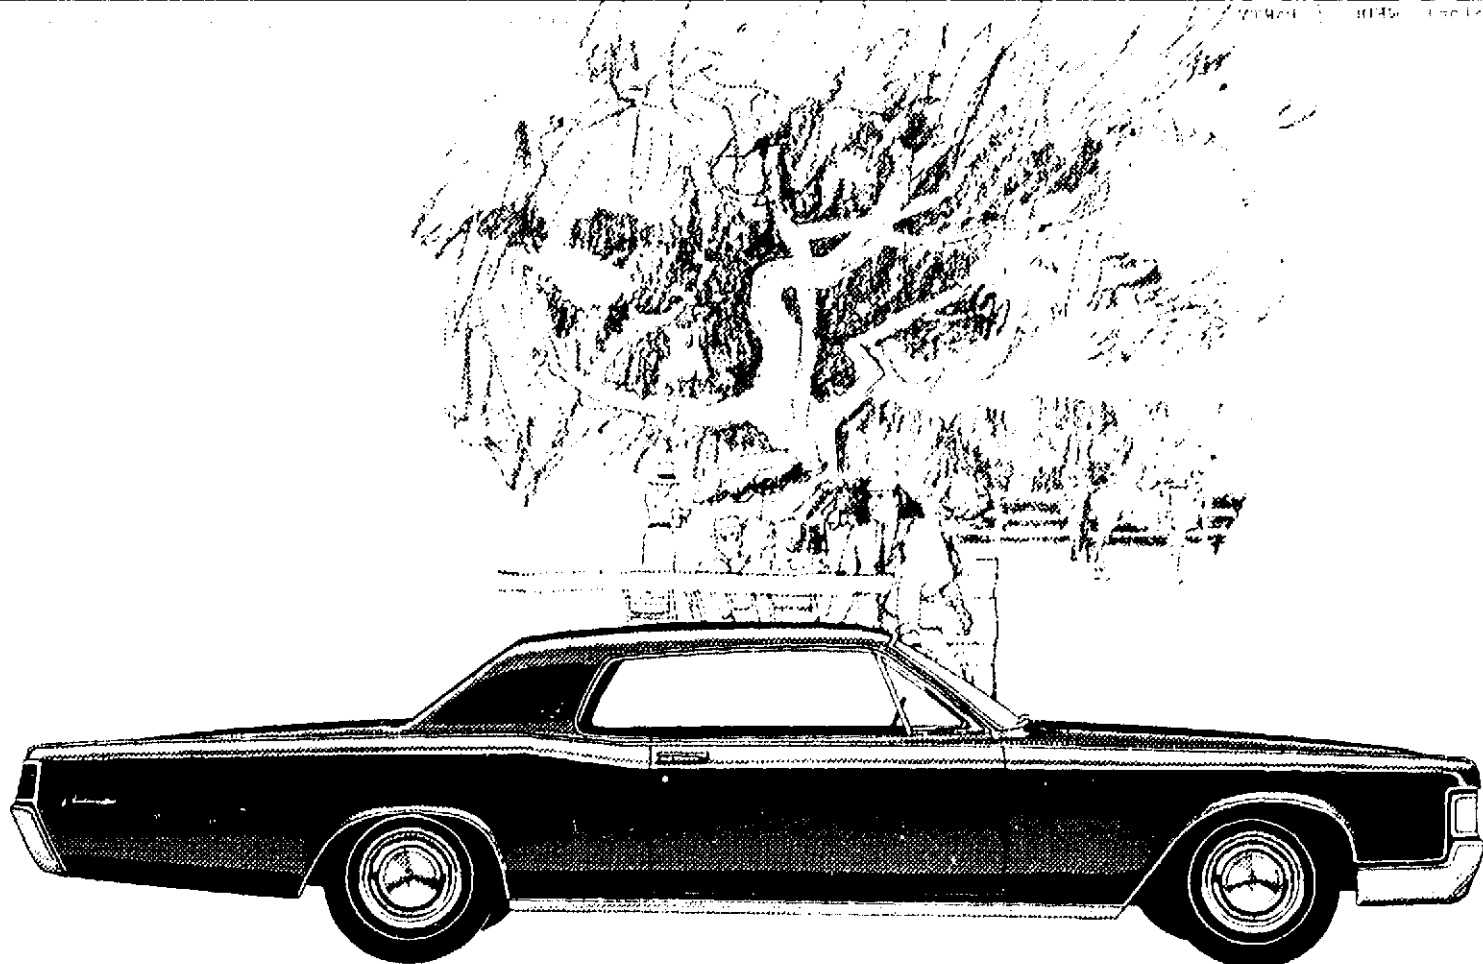

Arkansans in Money in Golf Meet

MEMPHIS (AP)—Miller Barber of Texarkana won $3,833 Sunday in the Memphis Open golf tournament while two other Arkansans won more than $1,000.

Barber finished in a three-way tie for fifth place after shooting a 67 Sunday for a 72-hole score of 271.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale had a 69 and a 275 total and won $1,500. Dick Crawford of Bella Vista won $1,058 after firing a closing day 70 for a 276 total.

Graham Hill Wins Monaco Race
MONTE CARLO (AP)—Graham Hill, driving a Lotus, won the Grand Prix of Monaco Formula One race Sunday, finishing the 160 miles in 2:32.3 for an average speed of 77.7 miles per hour.

Perfectionist's delight

Perfection is an elusive goal, yet the makers of Lincoln Continental have pledged themselves to it year after year. And they come closer to realizing their goal than any other fine-car maker. But then, they have a slight edge on the field. Each year, Continental engineers and designers start with the finest car in America. They improve it. They refine it. They subject it to over 2000 manufacturing checks. Then test it again with a rigorous twelve-mile road test. In fact, they are as meticulous about testing each Continental as they are about building it. This meticulous attention to even the most minute detail has led the most discerning of fine-car connoisseurs to acclaim Continental as the definitive car in its field. Lincoln Continental for 1968 more than ever lives up to its reputation as the finest car made in America. Everywhere you look, from the gracefully classic Continental design to the luxurious beauty of the interiors, you detect the craftsman's hand.

Allow us to show you how nearly perfect a motorcar can be. Let us arrange a personal demonstration for you, during which you may become acquainted with the pleasure and prestige awaiting you in the 1968 Lincoln Continental.

Graebner, Ashe Complete Net Sweep

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Clark Graebner and Art Ashe completed a United States 5-0 sweep over Mexico in the American Z one Davis Cup semifinal and stood by today waiting to see if Chile or Ecuador will be their next opponent.

Francisco Guzman and Miguel Olvera gave Ecuador a 2-1 lead against Chile with a 3-6, 7-9, 6-3, 11-9, 6-1 doubles victory over Patricio Rodriguez and Patricio Cornejo of Chile Sunday.

Jaime Pinto of Chile meets Guzman and Cornejo opposes Olvera in the final two singles matches today to decide the best-of-5 series in Guayaquil.

An Ecuador victor would mean a rematch of last year's final in which Guzman and Olvera stunned the United States in a tremendous upset before losing later en route to the Challenge Round against defending champion Australia.

Graebner, of New York, crushed Rafael Osuna 10-8, 6-3, 6-2, and Ashe, of Richmond, Va., tumbled Joaquin Loyola-Mayo 6-4, 9-7, 6-2 Sunday in their matches at Berkeley, Calif.

The U.S. team now moves on to Charlotte, N.C., for the finals June 7-9.

Spain, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Romania and South Africa also advanced Sunday with victories in the second round of European Zone play.

Spain now meets Great Britain, Russia on Italy, the Czechs get West Germany and Romania and South Africa tangle.

'Winnie Returns'

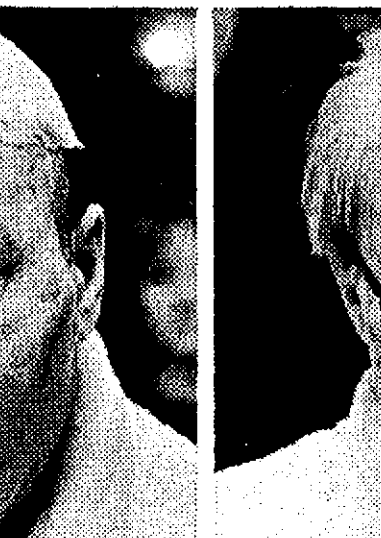

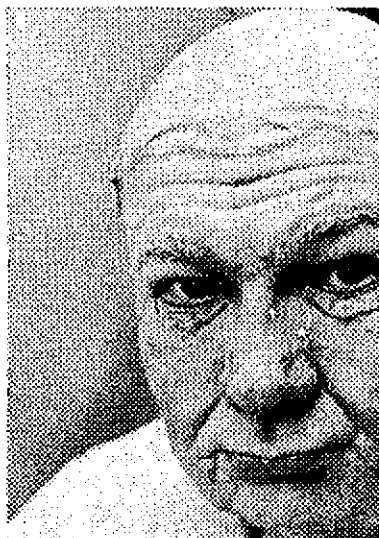

John Colicos, a Canadian actor, doesn't look like Winston Churchill. But physically and vocally he becomes the late statesman for his role in Rolt Hochhuth's play, "Soldiers."

"Dick Smith, who designed the make-up, did a life mask of my face. Then he sculpted Churchill's face on top of the mask. A mask, with careful use, will last eight performances."

The hair piece is on, and Colicos is beginning to submerge his identity. "It was weird looking in the mirror at first, but now I look forward to seeing myself disappear."

The Churchill look begins to emerge. "When I was working on the part, and becoming Churchill in my speech, I never dropped to my natural voice. I read 'Winnie the Pooh' to my children in Churchill's voice. My son, Nicky, who is 6, came to see a performance when we were in Toronto. I spoke to him in my voice, but I was wearing the make-up. He couldn't reconcile the face and the voice."

And here is Winston Churchill, living in the person of an actor who has also played King Lear, and God in "J.B." Asked what was left for him, Colicos said, "I suppose I could always play De Gaulle."

THE WELL CHILD

Although prickly heat often occurs in the diaper area, it is not to be confused with diaper rash which is more common in the colder months and may be caused by diapers made from coarse material, diapers from which all the soap has not been rinsed or, most frequently, from failure to change the diaper for two or three hours after wetting or soiling.

Heat rash is caused by an obstruction of the sweat pores. In addition to the diaper area, it may occur in skin folds where perspiration cannot readily evaporate. The best treatment is to use a minimum of clothing for your baby in hot weather and fasten his diaper very loosely. If your baby has a heat rash, use a fan or air conditioner in his room but avoid placing him in a direct draft. Give him sponge baths, using little or no soap or detergent, and follow them with a bland dusting powder. Don't use any ointments because they block the pores and aggravate the condition.

WR Appeals for Passage of Tax Plan

Let and snow and gloom of night may give the postal couriers trouble occasionally, but literally nothing seems to deter the junk mailers.

There was the California woman awhile back who stuck a note on her mailbox to the effect that "No person named 'Occu-pant' lives here." It didn't work.

An Atlanta citizen recently tried a more devious, but just as useless, stratagem. He began writing "Deceased" across all junk mail envelopes and returning them to senders, reports Saga magazine. In due course, his "widow" began receiving junk mail from people trying to sell her tombstones for her husband's grave. — Anniston (Ala.)

No Time For Food

Airline officials, along with the rest of us, are worrying about the trend toward faster trips and hasty meals. If you thought that plastic plate with all of those neat little compartments was shoved at you and was taken away too fast, you have the condolences of these officials.

You have little else, however. They say, and they should know, that as long as the American public keeps demanding faster planes with all of the amenities, something's got to give, and right now it's the stomach. As planes get even bigger, the problem will be even grater, to the point where they might have to install miniature automats in each seat. Push a button and there is your neatly packaged meal.

It may not amount to a great gastronomic flight, but then you can't expect Le Pavillon service on short-hop jets, despite what you read in the ads. Then perhaps the stewardess will have time to plump pillows, a function she always performed with great flair and tenderness in the pre-jet age. — Roanoke (Va.) Times

Blow, Wind, Blow

As if we didn't already have enough to worry about, we were reminded this week that we are using up more oxygen in this country than is being replaced into the air we breathe.

According to Dr. LaMont C. Cole of Cornell University, speaking at Georgia Tech conference on urban problems, if it weren't for the air blowing in from the Pacific and elsewhere, many of us would breathe our last gasps.

When this country was mostly forests and grasslands, there was more than enough oxygen being produced for everybody. Not so now, with our industrial air pollution, growing population and ever-receding greenery which turns carbon dioxide into oxygen by photosynthesis.

And, says Prof. Cole, if we keep on going as we are—polluting, chopping, sawing and paving—even the winds won't bring in enough oxygen from outside. Even thinking about all this makes us short of breath. — Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution

Court Refuses to Delay Induction

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused Monday to keep two young men out of military service while they challenge in the courts the speeded induction of Vietnam war protesters.

One, Reuben J. Shiffman, was a Vista volunteer who lost his deferment and was reclassified as a delinquent by a draft board in St. Petersburg, Fla., for returning his draft card as a "political protest."

The other, Michael J. Zigmond, was put at the head of the induction list by an Arlington, Mass., draft board when he turned his draft card in in a mass protest. Until then, being 26, he was not subject to induction.

Would Clear Up Drinks Issue

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Synod of the Presbyterian Church has adopted a resolution that urges the state legislature to clear up the liquor law controversy by "making it possible . . . to give the people . . . the opportunity to express their desire."

The Synod clerk, Rev. Edward S. Bayless of North Little Rock, said no specific bill was endorsed but that the language indicated a preference for local option on mixed drinks.

Enemy Steps Up Pace With New Weapon

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Enemy troops intensified the Vietnam war with thrusts near Saigon, in the central highlands and on the northern frontier over the weekend, but the cost was more than 900 of his soldiers killed, allied forces reported today.

In keeping with Hanoi's proclaimed "fight and talk" policy, the Communist command's push came as North Vietnamese and American negotiators prepared for their fifth meeting today in the Paris cease-fire talks.

American casualties were reported as 54 killed and 192 wounded in the series of battles. South Vietnamese losses were termed light.

Sharp fighting continued on three sides of Saigon today. The Viet Cong was believed moving 500 to 1,000 troops toward the capital.

The heaviest fighting over the weekend came in the northern sector, where North Vietnamese troops renewed their pressure on the U.S. Marine headquarters at Dong Ha, and in the central highlands, where a massive campaign may be shaping up.

U.S. spokesmen said superior allied firepower led to enemy defeats in most of the clashes, but American troops appeared to have been set back in at least two places.

About 800 North Vietnamese overran a section of the perimeter and four bunkers at a U.S. 4th Infantry Division patrol and artillery base 11 miles west of Dak To in the central highlands. In more than seven hours of fighting, 14 U.S. infantrymen were killed and 56 wounded, U.S. fighter-bombers joined the battle and the enemy retreated in thick fog.

About 400 Viet Cong troops attacking with grenades, mortars and small arms killed five infantrymen of a U.S. 25th Division unit in night defensive positions on the northwest outskirts of Saigon, six miles from the center of the city. The enemy withdrew early today.

One of Four Persons in U.S. Has a Girth Control Problem

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Obesity, once a prestige symbol, has become so hateful to Americans that nearly seven million a year now seek medical help in losing weight. One out of every four persons has a girth control problem.

Do you feel some days that you're bearing the weight of the world on your shoulders? It might help to put your worries in perspective to recall that you are only one of three billion or so people on an obscure planet circling a sun which is only one of 200 billion stars in a single galaxy—and the universe holds millions upon millions of galaxies. You and all your problems are far less noticeable in that universe than one microbe is in a whale.

Tip to forgetful drivers: Have you taken off your snow tires yet? If left on a car during summer months, the heat built up in them by high-speed driving can result in disastrous blowouts.

Geographical tidbit: The Alamo, the fort at San Antonio, Tex., famed for its last-ditch stand, was so named because of a cottonwood tree—in Spanish,

They estimate that the oceans contain thousands of marine organisms which may yield drugs useful to man, but only about one per cent have as yet been tested in the laboratory.

Food Is Available in Paris, But the Prices Have Doubled, Tripled

By BERNARD LAVALLEE
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — "Sorry, madame, I can't sell you a kilo of potatoes," the grocer told a desperate housewife. "The 50 kilos you see are reserved for one of my best customers."

It was one of the aggravations of the general strike that hit France early last week, but there has been no open panic because the fresh food channel — farmers, private transporters and grocers — kept working.

French cities were supplied with milk, vegetables, fruit and meat as drivers concentrated on perishable products.

Still, some housewives started hoarding food and some items were hard to find in shops. On Saturday, for example, it was possible to buy beef, tomatoes or cherries in any shop but one could hardly get salt, sugar, oil, canned food or even wine.

Prices doubled or tripled in a week. Trying to force prices down, some angry housewives threatened to bring charges of black market profiteering against grocers as in World War II.

But there also were cases of price reductions for some perishable vegetables, such as tomatoes, when grocers saw they might have to throw them away.

Humphrey Choice in Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is the overwhelming presidential choice of committed Pennsylvania Democratic convention delegates, an Associated Press poll showed today.

The poll showed him running 27 to 1 ahead of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and 3 to 1 in front of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Pennsylvania, with 162 delegates, will have 130 votes at the party's national convention in Chicago this August. This is about 10 per cent of the number needed to win the nomination.

The delegation is the third largest among the states.

The AP mail and telephone survey lists these Pennsylvania votes:

Humphrey 63%, McCarthy 19, Kennedy 2%, uncommitted or untraced 45.

It is almost a clear majority with a third of the votes still up for grabs.

Humphrey supporters in the big industrial state are headed by former Gov. George M. Leader, and they claim that nearly all of those who still have "no choice" will be with the vice president at the convention's first roll call.

Humphrey, reached at Washington, said he preferred not to comment on the AP poll and would rather wait until the delegates themselves take some definitive action.

Millwood Asst. Engineer Is Drowned

ASHDOWN — The assistant engineer of Millwood Dam drowned last Friday when his boat overturned while fishing and he was sucked through the flood gates at Millwood.

Little River County Sheriff Aubrey Thrash identified the man as Wayne Edwin Steward, 34, of Ashdown. Sheriff Thrash said that Steward was fishing with his son, Michael, 9, and Cecil East, 31, of Ashdown at about 10 p.m. Friday when the accident occurred.

East and Steward's son made it to land, but the current apparently was too strong for Steward. His body was found about 4:45 a.m. Saturday about 50 feet from the flood gates in Little River.

He is survived by his wife, two sons and a daughter of Ashdown; his parents Mr. and Mrs. Everett Steward of Albert, Okla. Services were Monday, the body was taken to Fort Cobb, Okla. where services will be held at 2:30 Tuesday. Burial will be in Oak Cemetery of Albert.

Where the rich hoarded, the poor had trouble obtaining food. In a plush western Paris suburb, one grocery customer blindly ordered food "for 100 francs" — $20 — while others waiting in line anxiously looked at their wallets.

Gasoline, cigarettes, soap and other such products often were unavailable. Industrial goods were severely limited because of the strikes in the factories and wholesale shops. Public transport was dead.

One Parisian doctor pointed to his empty waiting room and said people were not coming for medical care because they could not pay him. Some doctors in industrial regions said they would treat patients who could prove they were strikers. The strike committees could deliver such proof.

Because of the lack of public transport, persons not on strike drove their own cars to work. But as the days passed, most gasoline stations closed because they were not supplied by the tank truck drivers.

By Saturday, it was impossible to buy gasoline in Paris except in filling stations reserved for doctors — marked with red crosses — and others reserved for drivers of food trucks.

An important reason for the absence of panic was that the electric plant workers, while on strike, did not cut the power supply as they have in the past. They apparently kept a power cut as a threat against the government in case negotiations come to a deadlock.

Draft Card Burning Law Upheld

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court upheld today a 1965 federal law that made it a crime to burn or otherwise destroy draft cards.

The 9-1 decision was given by Chief Justice Earl Warren. Justice William O. Douglas dissented.

"A law prohibiting destruction of Selective Service certificates no more abridges free speech on its face than a motor vehicle law prohibiting the destruction of drivers' licenses, or a tax law prohibiting the destruction of books and records," Warren wrote.

The 1965 law, an amendment to federal draft law, had been declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Circuit Court in Boston. That court held that draft card burnings is a form of protest protected by the First Amendment's free speech guarantees.

The Supreme Court, through Warren, upset this holding and bottomed its position on "the constitutional power of Congress to raise and support armies and to make all laws necessary and proper to that end."

Douglas, in dissent, said it is "undoubtedly true" that Congress has broad and sweeping powers over Selective Service when a state of war has been declared.

However, he went on, there is a question whether even the drafting of men is permissible without a declaration of war.

Hearing for G&F Ouster Ruled Legal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller can proceed with scheduled ouster hearings for members of the state Game and Fish Commission.

The court dissolved an injunction issued by Chancellor John Jernigan of Little Rock prohibiting Rockefeller from holding the hearings.

Rockefeller charged last year that he had evidence of misconduct in office by some commissioners, but he has not named them.

The ouster hearings had been scheduled to begin last December, but attorneys for commissioners obtained the injunction from Jernigan.

The high court held unanimously that Jernigan erred when he held that Amendment 35, which set up the Game and Fish Commission, did not provide for removal hearings in the absence of enabling legislation.

The Supreme Court said Section 5 of the amendment was

Club Told About Quail, Fishing

From the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, Bill White, game biologist, and Paul Choate, fish biologist, brought an informative program to the Hope Rotary Club on Friday, May 24 at the Town and Country. Dorsey McRae introduced the speakers, and Mr. White discussed the Hope Quail area near Oakhaven, and developments of game areas at Bois d'Arc and Millwood. He also discussed road and bridge work that will be helpful to hunters.

"One of the finest fishing spots in the Southwest is going to be the 25,000 acres of productive water called Millwood Lake," said Mr. Choate. He said it would be a great advantage to both sportsmen and commercial fishermen. He also spoke of the Bois d'Arc Lake development, and both men answered questions after their talks.

President Clyde Fouse welcomed the members, the speakers, and one guest, J.E. Pruden of Sidney, O.

Spock Trial Entering Second Week

BOSTON (AP) — What apparently will be a long trial for Dr. Benjamin Spock and four codefendants entered its second week today.

Prosecution testimony in the draft evasion conspiracy case has centered on a meeting last October inside the Department of Justice building in Washington.

An FBI agent from Washington was scheduled to testify for the government following the weekend recess.

On trial with 65-year-old baby doctor are Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin Jr., 43; Michael Ferber, 23, a Harvard graduate student; Mitchell Goodman, 44, a New York writer and teacher; and Marcus Raskin, 33, a Washington research director.

If convicted of charges of conspiring to "aid, abet and counsel" youths to avoid the draft they could receive maximum sentences of five year prison terms and $10,000 fines.

The trial recessed Friday after testimony by John McDonough, an assistant deputy U.S. attorney general, who said Spock, Coffin, Goodman and Raskin demanded last Oct. 20 that he accept from them a briefcase filled with draft cards and facsimiles.

"I told them I could not and would not accept the briefcase," McDonough testified.

McDonough said Raskin told him the draft cards were evidence of a federal law violation and that it was his duty to receive them.

McDonough said he summoned two FBI agents to take custody of the briefcase.

Latest estimates are that it may take the government as long as a month to present its evidence.

Took Year to Find a Ring

SEATTLE (AP) — Last January, Mrs. Albert James dropped her wedding and engagement rings in the snow when removing a ski glove at Snoqualmie Pass. Forest Ranger Ken White told her he would chart the spot and look for the rings when the snow melted.

Mrs. James had them back Saturday. White's son, Greg, 6, found them.

tions of time and talent to the Friday Music Club. The meeting was closed by all singing the Hymn of the Month, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee," after Mrs. W. E. White had sketched its history.

The place of meeting was attractively decorated with magnolia blossoms, pansies, and pink roses. As they arrived, 22 members and 2 guests, Miss Ross and Mrs. Audrey Foster, were served frosted punch and cookies.

Miss Nancy Ross of McCaskey, talented young pianist, was a special guest of the Friday Music Club, when it met May 24 in the home of Mrs. B. C. Hyatt. Mrs. Arthur Wimmell introduced her former pupil who played "Ten Concert Variations" by Mark Nevin and "The Old Song" by Fernandez.

Mrs. Helen Hatch Boyd was in charge of the program entitled "Twentieth Century Compositions for Two Pianos." After she had given a delightful sketch of the life of Rachmaninoff, Mrs. B. C. Hyatt and Mrs. Arthur Strech played a two-piano arrangement of his "Prelude in G minor." The choral group from the club sang another of his compositions, "The Island."

The speaker outlined interesting aspects of the life of the modern composer, Abram Chasins, and the Hyatt-Strech duo played "Die Fledermaus Fantasy on Themes by Johann Strauss" arranged by Chasins. After the club had accepted the slate of new officers by unanimous vote, the retiring president, Mrs. Sam W. Strong, turned the club over to the new president, Mrs. Clarence Geist, in a clever manner. Other officers for the coming year are: 1st vice-president, Mrs. W. A. Williams; 2nd Vice-president, Mrs. Guy Downing; 3rd Vice-president, Mrs. James McLarty; recording secretary, Mrs. W. E. White; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas Hays, Jr.; auditor, Mrs. Charles Reynerson; parliamentarian, Mrs. Sam W. Strong; historian, Mrs. Bob Moers; librarian and pianist, Mrs. B. C. Hyatt.

Mrs. Strong, on behalf of the entire club, presented Mrs. Hyatt a past-president's pin in appreciation for all her contribu-

Legislative Reaction About
as Expected

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov.
Winthrop Rockefeller's blistering attack of the Arkansas General Assembly Saturday has drawn counter-charges from some lawmakers who contend that the governor was not prepared for the special legislative session he called.

Sen. Guy "Mutt" Jones of Conway said that if Rockefeller had prepared the lawmakers could have adjourned sine die at the end of the first week of the session which enters its second week today.

Rep. Leon Holsted of North Little Rock told a television audience Saturday night that Rockefeller wasn't prepared and that the "question at issue is leadership and I frankly don't think we have it."

port for his mixed-drink proposals.

"I never intended this bill as something to change the habits of anybody in Arkansas," Rockefeller said. "To the contrary, my proposal strengthens local option. It eliminates the hypocrasy that has weakened our law enforcement."

"Nobody is forcing anything
on anybody," Rockefeller said.
"I am simply proposing to give each county or city—those now permitting the sale of alcoholic beverages—an opportunity to vote on the mixed-drink question."

"If the legislature rejects this, then I propose that it face
the issue honestly, the other way, and abolish the sale of mixed drinks, brown bagging, and other such practices," he said.

Rockefeller said the tax proposals he offered were not popular but called for careful consideration before being rejected or accepted.

The governor also sent a telegram to the legislators urging that they support his program in the legislature.

Rockefeller said he realized that his inclusion of a mixed drink bill and tobacco tax proposals was "responsible for much of the irritation and unrest."

He said that he would "have been derelict" had he not included them because of the financial condition of the state.

"We have an opportunity to start anew," the telegram said.

Today's Poor
March Just Might Fizzle

By AUSTIN SCOTT

WASHINGTON (AP) — A demonstration at the Agriculture Department headed the tentative agenda for the Poor People's Campaign today, but organizers wouldn't guarantee they could pull it off.

"We just may sit in on Secretary of Agriculture Orville L.
Freeman until we persuade him to go with us to Congress," the Rev. James Bevel told a Sunday morning prayer session at Resurrection City, U.S.A.

Bevel said the demonstration in support of more federal food programs "would probably be rescheduled for Tuesday if it can't be mobilized today."

His announcement was in keeping with Sunday's announcement by the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, campaign leader, that this week—the third of Resurrection City's brief existence—would see a move "full swing into nonviolent activities."

Sunday was primarily a day
for housekeeping and greeting visitors at the campground of little plywood huts that now nearly fills its assigned 15 acres in West Potomac Park, near the Lincoln Memorial.

Two days of broiling weekend
sun baked the muddy swamp
that engulfed the city last week back to a hard clay surface, and the "city manager," the Rev.
Jesse Jackson, declared an open house from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Dozens of visitors strolled slowly down the western frontier-style board sidewalk along Abernathy Boulevard, taking pictures of residents lounging in front of their sweltering homes.

self-executing and did not require enabling legislation.

Associate Justice John A.
Fogleman, who wrote the opinion, said a commissioner may be removed by the governor for the same causes as applied to other constitutional officers after a hearing that may be reviewed by 1st District Chancery Court with right of appeal to the Supreme Court.

Attorneys for the commissioners said the section didn't set out the procedure that must be followed against a commissioner.

Fogleman said the court found nothing in Amendment 35
that would suggest the legislature must implement it.

The passage of 25 years without any implementing or enabling legislation by the General Assembly would indicate that the legislature agrees that Amendment 35 was not addressed to it, the court said.

The ruling said it wasn't necessary that every detail for the application of a constitutional provision be specified in order for it to be self-executing.

The Supreme Court said, however, that "certainly it would be expected that the branch of government having the responsibility for the proceeding should adopt procedural rules
subject to constitutional statutory limitations."

The court said a removal order by the governor should be held in abeyance until review by the courts.

The court also said, "It would seem highly desirable that any hearing be public and certainly it should be if any accused commissioners so desired."

Africa have unearthed crude stone hammers made 12 million years ago by a prehuman ancestor of man—scientists call him Kenyanthropus Wickeri. Mr.
Wickeri used his hammer to bash in the skulls of antelopes
—and perhaps those of his neighbors.

Worth remembering: "A fool
and his money are soon invited places."

Why do women traditionally wear wedding rings on the third finger of their left hand? According to one theory, the ancient Egyptians and Romans believed that the "vein of love"— vena amoris—flows directly from that vein to the heart, the seat of tender passion.

Jogging is becoming increasingly popular among health seekers, but many deep thinkers and poets of the past have preferred walking. William Wordsworth, who lived to be 80, is said by fellow writer Thomas De Quincey to have walked 180,000 miles in a lifetime "of unclouded happiness." Other noted walking authors: Samuel Johnson, William Hazlitt and Henry David Thoreau.

Folklore says putting a jar
of water with a knife in it behind your door will keep the devil away. The best day to sow turnips is July 25, regardless of whether it rains or shines. If the bubbles on a cup of coffee float toward you, money will come your way—and vice versa. It's bad luck to enter a house with your left foot first.

It was Gen. William T. Sherman who observed, "If forced to choose between the penitentiary and the White House for four years, I would say the penitentiary, thank you."

French Leaders Agree to Settlement But the Workers Reject Plan

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — French labor, management and the government hammered out an agreement today to end the nation's paralyzing general strike, but workers in two key automobile plants in the Paris area rejected
the settlement.

Union leaders toured the strikebound factories explaining the agreement. The workers shouted their disapproval at the nationalized Renault automobile works and the privately owned Citroen plant.

None of the union leaders would predict whether the 10 million striking workers would accept the pact and end the giant defiance of President Charles de Gaulle's government. But Georges Seguy, secretary general of the Communist-led General Confederation of Workers, said the decisions should be made "in a short time".

Seguy said the unions had achieved only partial success in the two nights of negotiating sessions, which lasted a total of 27 hours.

"We have arrived at an ensemble of conclusions which one can say constitutes an agreement," Premier Georges Pom-pidou told newsmen as the decisive 14-hour session ended at 7:45 a.m.

If the settlement is ratified by the workers, its cost may force De Gaulle to curtail or even abandon such expensive items as his nuclear strike force and large-scale aid to developing countries. He may also have to dig deep into France's hoard of gold which he has been using to put pressure on the dollar and the British pound.

Although the labor front was looking up, Pompidou was plagued with the possibility of more trouble on the second front of France's crisis, the student rebellion.

The National Students' Union
called a 24-hour demonstration to begin today against alleged police provocations which it claimed were responsible for the bloody rioting in Paris
Thursday and Friday nights.

The Interior Ministry gave the students permission for a street march followed by a meeting at a stadium. Leaders of the students' union pledged that the demonstration would be nonviolent, but radical groups who have been talking revolution refused to join in the pledge.

The premier's tactic has been to give priority to the workers' demands since the general strike is having the more serious effect on the nation's economy and its life.

Presumably the government
now will turn to the students' demands for sweeping reform of the antiquated university system. Pompidou has already promised a thorough shakeup
